

Homestays in Paris

Booking conditions

Your accommodation option in Paris

You made up your mind and have definitely opted for a homestay in Paris through France Accommodation & Culture services.

We certainly wish to attend to your request in the shortest time possible, but to that effect, we shall invite you

- to duly fill the registration form
- As well as the payment form which will serve as registration validation voucher as soon as the 80€ registration fee is credited to our bank.

Upon receipt of the registration fee we can launch the research and send you the details of your home stay. We do not send any address prior to the payment of that registration fee which is not refundable, unless under exceptional circumstances.

Time limits for Booking

- You do not need to register a long time before your arrival in Paris, some 4 to 8 weeks are sufficient as host families are usually not aware of their room availabilities long beforehand.
- We can accept last minute booking, up to one week before arrival.

Booking guarantees

Whatever be the booking time, the dates for the stay and its duration, we undertake to confirm your homestay and to send you all the details on your host family by e.mail prior to your arrival.

Your reservation is finally confirmed on receipt of your payment, prior to your arrival.

As a general rule, we submit one single family address, as we select families on the basis of wishes and requests expressed, families who live near the study venues and who are willing to host students during their whole stay.

It is quite unusual for a non French student to refuse the address we propose.

We do not communicate address lists nor do we send photographs of the flats.

When you receive our report, we will expect you to give us your agreement, or disagreement, as soon as possible, so that we can confirm your stay to the family concerned, as it is clear that rooms cannot be kept vacant for a long period of time.

Some students decide not to follow up with the booking procedure, in those cases, registration fees are not refunded and booking is cancelled.

Feel confident, trust as there is always an ACCOMMODATION SOLUTION that will suit each and every one, regardless of age, duration of stay and preferred option.
